La Société canadienne pour les traditions musicales The Canadian Society for Traditional Music

Treasurer's report, budget, and financial statements for the year ending 2004-August-31

The financial statements comprise a Balance Sheet and a Statement of Income and Expenses. The financial statements are unaudited. There were several notable financial events during this financial year.

First, the down side.

- Printing costs have risen sharply, by between $5 \%$ and $45 \%$. There is still uncertainty about these costs.
- As budgetted for in last year's report, postage costs rose by about $12 \%$.
- VISA processing costs have risen by $80 \%$. Other banking charges have risen sharply both this year and in the previous year.
- We anticipate that the SOCAN grant will drop this year, from $$ 1500$ to $$ 1000$.

Second, the up side.

- Last year's AGM produced $$ 950$ of windfall income.
- For the second year in a row, membership numbers have increased slightly.
- The International Council for Traditional Music, of which the Society is a member, has reduced their annual dues from $150 to zero.

Third, the financially neutral side.

- Membership income as a result of the rates increase has been almost exactly as projected.
- One publication was more expensive than expected, and this was offset by a specific matching donation.
- We only printed and mailed three Bulletins during the financial year just ended, so publication costs were lower than they would otherwise have been. In the coming financial year five Bulletins will be printed and mailed, and the budget (see below) has been designed to reflect this.
- The Mail Order Service continues to make a small surplus.
- The surplus for this year of $$ 2950$ (see page 4 ) evaporates if one takes away the AGM windfall income, the cost of the Bulletin that has not yet been published, and the anticipated drop in the SOCAN grant.

For the financial year 2004-2005 the following budget is proposed for administration and publications (that is, including neither the AGM nor the Mail Order Service, both of which are assumed to break even).

- Membership fees of $$ 7700$ plus donations of $$ 250$ plus SOCAN grant for 2004 of $$ 1000$ plus single issue sales of $\mathbf{$ 1 0 0}$ plus GST rebate of $\mathbf{$ 2 5 0}$ plus fund-raising of $$ 100$ gives us income of $\mathbf{$ 9 4 0 0}$.
- Administration and general publication expenses $$ 1000$. This leaves us $\mathbf{$ 8 4 0 0}$ to spend.
- One 80 page Journal for December 2004, printing expenses $$ 1975$ plus mailing expenses $$ 980$. This leaves us $\mathbf{$ 5 4 4 5}$ to spend.
- Four Bulletins, all 44 pages, printing expenses $$ 3980$. Assuming that the December issue is mailed with the Journal, mailing expenses of $$ 1935$. This results in an operating deficit of $\mathbf{$ 4 7 0}$.
- The fifth Bulletin is treated as an extraordinary charge, rather than as a regular expense. Assuming that two Bulletins are mailed together at some time during the coming financial year, the cost of printing and mailing the additional Bulletin is $\mathbf{$ 1 3 5 0}$.
- The opening balance of $$ 3700$ plus the $$ 1500$ SOCAN grant for 2003 in arrears minus the extraordinary charge for the additional Bulletin of $$ 1350$ minus the deficit of $$ 470$ will leave us with a closing balance of $\mathbf{$ 3 3 8 0}$, plus the reserve account of $\mathbf{$ 1 1 0 0}$.

We are continuing to operate with less than our full prudent financial reserve (which would be about $2700), and may have to dip into the reserve account at some point during the summer of 2005.

If there are no further financial surprises, we can continue for two years without a membership rate increase. Because it takes a year for the full benefit of increased rates to be felt, we will be proposing a motion to increase membership rates at the AGM in 2005. If the SOCAN grant does not drop after all, we can probably delay any rates increase for a further year or two.

Respectfully submitted,
James Prescott
Treasurer
